Meeting of Pickett-Buchanan Camp Confederate Veterans.

ELOQUENT ADDRESSES

A Page of the Record Dedicated to a Deceased Comrade—Commander Greenwood Retires and General Garnett In-states the Recently Elected Officers—
 Votes of Thanks—Memorial Day—Committees.

The regular monthly meeting of Pickett-Buchanan Camp, Confederate Veterans, was held in its hall last evening at 8 o'clock. Commander Greenwood presided. Prayer by the chaplain.

The Special Committee on Banquet in Honor of General R. E. Lee, January 19th, 1900, made its final report and was discharged with thanks.

The Committee on the Cunningham-Underwood Controversy was, on motion, continued, and requested to present its written report, with recommendations, at the next meeting of the camp.

The death since the last meeting of the camp of Comrade B. F. Baxter was announced, when, on motion, a page of the record was dedicated to his memory, and a letter of sympathy directed to be sent his family.

Comrade H. P. Drummond, who had been elected to the position of second lieutenant-commander, declined, and Colonel O. H. Perry was elected to fill the vacancy.

RETIRING COMMANDER'S ADDRESS.

In surrendering the office of commander of the camp, Colonel Greenwood made the following address:

"Comrades: Another year has sped its course; once more we meet in annual assembly to review the past and lay out plans for the future, for that there is yet a long and useful future before our camp, we have good reason to predict.

"The past is an open book before us, and in retrospect, in turning over some of its pages we are arrested by the first chapter devoted as it is to necrology, for at the beginning of my term there occurred, in quick succession, the deaths of three of our oldest, most prominent and zealous members, comrades who were largely instrumental in making our camp what it was and what it is.

"Following, during the year, ten others, prominent in business, at the bar and in the church, have crossed the river to join the vast majority. We are pleased to note the increased attendance on funerals and disposition to pay the last sad tribute of respect to our dead, to drop a sympathetic tear with surviving kin and join with them in the assurance of a glorious immortality.

"At our last annual meeting there was reported on our roster 313 members. Since then we have added 16. There have died 13; 2 have withdrawn, leaving a membership of 314, a gain of 1, which, when all is considered, is a cause for congratulation. But, still, the sad thought is forced on us, a fact we cannot ignore, that ours is an organization we cannot hope to perpetuate by the infusion of young life and blood, for

"In life's harvest growing,
 The reaping and the sowing,
 Our comrades are ever going
 Home to rest."

And year by year must we expect, in the natural cause of events, our ranks to grow thinner and thinner, our mem-

PENSION YOURSELF!

A fixed income of $100 to $1,000 each year paid DURING LIFE to the member at old age, then at death passes to his beneficiary.

THE SCOTTISH ANNUITY SYSTEM OF The Grand Fraternity provides complete and perfect protection WHILE YOU LIVE, and then goes to widow and children. Half rate annuities for accidents, chronic sickness, partial and total disability. Full rate annuities for old age OR FOUR FORMS OF PROTECTION AND INVESTMENT ALL IN ONE POLICY.

No endless assessments! Limited fixed payments at ascertained cost! Members assisted in raising payments in times of sickness and stress. All rates carried by the Fraternity after 15 years and at old age cease altogether, with the annuity earned and payable.

Plan perpetual, based on European experience seven centuries old and guaranteed by ample reserves.

No cost to join! Age limit 18 to 55 years.

Notice—The plan of THE GRAND FRATERNITY does not conflict with other orders, but supplements them, instead, in favor of the living! Then continues its quarterly income to beneficiaries.

borship to grow smaller and smaller, which should actuate us to unite ourselves more closely together by the tender ties of reciprocal love and friendship. I still adhere to the opinion that there is yet enough material in this community from which, largely, to augment our membership, and recommend the continuance of the committee to enlist new members and bring in stragglers.

On March 13th our camp was advised of its admission to the United Confederate Veterans, and a few days thereafter our charter was received.

On March 25th the cornerstone of our unfinished monument was placed, and that pile, so beautifully rearing its graceful proportions heavenward, has had earnestly hoped ere this to have been completed and dedicated to the service to which we have so solemnly devoted it. You will unite with me in the prayer that our fond anticipations will be fully realized before our next annual meeting.

Tuesday, May 9th, a large number of our comrades and friends made the pilgrimage to Charleston, S. C., to participate in the reunion of the United Confederate Veterans, and the pleasure of that interesting occasion is still fresh in the memory of those whose good fortune it was to participate.

I was denied the pleasure and privilege of attending our Grand Camp at Pulaski, Va., in October, by circumstances beyond my control, but our camp was ably represented on that occasion by Past Commanders General E. M. Henry and Colonel Washington Taylor.

Thursday, May 25th, we observed as our Memorial Day, and while divested of some of the pomp and pageantry of former occasions, still observed with the quiet dignity which, I think, should ever obtain on this, the most sacred day in our Confederate calendar.

We participated in the Memorial exercises of our kindred camps in Portsmouth and Berkeley, as they did in ours, and this interchange of courtesies should be encouraged.

Our meetings have been made pleasant and profitable by occasional war talks by some of our comrades, and we were specially privileged to hear the finished address on the life and character of Stonewall Jackson, so acceptably portrayed by that accomplished orator, Dr. Hunter McGuire, of Richmond, Va., and on these occasions we were honored by a large attendance of the friends of the camp.

We trust that the effort being made to revive the Camp of Sons of Veterans, under our auspices, will be encouraged and successfully accomplished, and that he made to appreciate the precious heritage that has been or may be bequeathed to them by those who fought, and died for a cause that was glorious, right and just.

January 19th last we celebrated the anniversary of the natal day of the immaculate R. E. Lee, and as usual, the occasion was a most enjoyable as well as a profitable one, and was largely attended.

I would urge the members to attend our meetings more largely and impress on them the importance of paying their small monthly dues promptly and more generally, even if some personal sacrifice has to be made, that we may more fully accomplish the good work we have in hand, and it should be an incentive to an increased interest when it is realized that we have expended in charity from our meagre resources a sum aggregating $10,000.

Now, my comrades, I have rendered you an account of my stewardship, and if I have done aught that does not meet your approval I trust that you will overlook my shortcomings with the mantle of charity, assuring you when I accepted the position which you so highly honored me, while I felt my own fitness for the office, still, with a zeal and devotion for the cause, soliciting the co-operation of my fellow-officers and members and invoking the guidance of the Grand Commander above, I would make an honest effort to transmit to my successor the badge of authority as unsullied as when placed in my hands, and the honor conferred upon me, the highest in your power to bestow; ever feel grateful for the many courtesies and words of encouragement I have received at your hands, and especially so to our worthy Adjutant, who at all times always ready and willing with that ability and courtesy with which he is so well endowed, to perform his duty and assist with his kindly offices whenever called on. Long may he be spared to our camp.

Now, my comrades, my work is done, and in a few short months the scepter of authority will be transferred to my worthy successor, and I bespeak for the same kind consideration so generously bestowed on me, and pray for the continued peace and prosperity of our beloved camp.

The address was listened to with rapt attention and met with continued applause.

OFFICERS INSTALLED.

At its conclusion General T. S. Garnett came forward and installed the officers for the present term in the following choice speech:

"Comrades, I have to regret that this camp has never adopted a form of proceeding for the installation of its officers and am at a loss now to express in proper and fitting phrase either the regret we feel at parting with our old officers or welcoming the new."

"Gentlemen, you, the officers, have been summoned by the solemn vote of your comrades to take charge of the affairs of Pickett-Buchanan Camp."

"You are to lead us, not in battle, for our warfare is, we trust, ended forever; not in the imminent, deadly breach where once we were wont to follow some of you, nor yet to the hardships and bitter experiences of the camp, the field or the gundeck."

"But we look to you for guidance in all the varied interests which cluster around us in the life of this camp. Upon you rests the responsibility for the success or failure of our future life as a camp during the approaching term. That life, I need not remind you, has been crowned with many blessings."

To you is committed the fair name and reputation of Pickett-Buchanan Camp. Relying upon your zeal and efficiency, we look for an increase in enthusiasm and success in all the departments of our official service."

"Commander Browne, I commit to you this gavel. It is invested with more than ordinary interest, as it is the gift of a faithful friend, and commemorates a great deliverance from imminent peril on our journey from Charleston, S. C., as well as a memento of that interesting first trip which this camp made in attending the reunion of the United Confederate Veterans at Charleston last year."

"We devoutly thank God that the

BRAMBLETON

Protracted Session of the Local Board of Improvement.

Report From the Street Committee Contract for Street Improvements Awarded—An Offer Declined—Proposed Exchange of Property.

The Local Board of Improvement held its monthly meeting at 8 o'clock last night, with President Jones in the chair.

Mr. Reed, chairman of the Street Committee, reported that the streets, especially the unimproved, were in a very unsatisfactory condition, and that these evils had been remedied as far as possible by laying the sidewalks with cinders. The report recommended that a street and assistant sanitary inspector be employed, the recommendation having been concurred in by the entire committee.

Officer Dozier's report stated that the Virginia Beach and Southern railroad had commenced putting up safety gates at the Brambleton and Park avenue crossings.

The matter of Mr. R. C. White refusing to let the ward have the stone curbing and flagging recently taken up by him on Park avenue was referred to the City Attorney for his opinion.

Mr. Denby was given the contract for improving Sheldon and Pollard avenues their entire length.

A communication from Mr. Luther Sheldon, president of the Riverside Land Company, agreeing to have the bridge over Ohio creek repaired at a cost not exceeding $75, the expense to be borne by the company and the board jointly, was received. The offer was declined.

Mr. W. J. Shepherd called the attention of the board to the condition of his property on Reservoir avenue caused by the improvements going on there, and asked that he be given relief. The board decided to expend $15 in running a drain, provided he will meet any additional expense and fill his lots to conform to the grade of the streets. The matter was referred to the Street Committee with power to act.

The Committee on Lights was authorized to place an electric light on Brambleton avenue, near the Norfolk and Western railway crossing.

Mr. Ferabee, from the Sewer Committee, reported that two of the pumping stations were working satisfactory but that the one near Charles street was not in operation, and that the flush connection had not been made by the Water Department.

The letter of Mr. B. Brabbe in regard to the exchange of certain property near the Charles street pump-house was referred to the City Attorney for his opinion as to Mr. Brabbe's rights in the premises.

A communication was received from Mr. R. C. Taylor, secretary of the School Board, giving the amount of appropriations for the running of the public schools and what is needed to run them to the close of the season. The board decided to request the Councils to set aside for this purpose $3,683.25.

The bond of Mr. R. A. Hyslop, with Mr. R. C. White as surety, for removing the garbage from the ward, was accepted.

A communication from Mr. J. Sidney Smith in regard to street improvements was read and filed.

An application from Mr. George S. Summer for a position on the police force was filed.

A communication from Mr. J. B. Conner, superintendent of terminals of the Norfolk and Western Railroad Company, containing an agreement in duplicate for laying sewers across the company's right of way near the end of Spring street, and requesting that the same be executed on the part of the city affixing a $1 revenue stamp to the original and returning both, was read. The board agreed to enter into the contract.

Mr. Gale offered the following:

Resolved, That bids be invited for the improvement of Brambleton and Park avenues with either vitrified brick or asphalt, each bidder to give separate bids for each avenue, estimates to be under specifications made by the City Engineer, the work to be done under his supervision. Lovitt avenue was added to the list.

Mr. J. W. Stokes was elected a street and assistant sanitary inspector at a salary of $50 per month.

The Councils were requested to set aside the amount necessary to pay the salary of this officer.

REFORM LEAGUE MEETING.

Between 300 and 400 men attended the meeting of the Reform Democratic League at Kirm Hall last night. Mr. Charles I. Stengele called the meeting to order and introduced Captain J. J. Burroughs as the first speaker.

The Captain made a ringing speech in advocacy of a reform in the present city administration. His remarks were received with applause.

He was followed by Messrs. S. S. Lambeth, Jr., G. Taylor Gwathmey and Ivor A. Page in strong addresses.

During the meeting resolutions were unanimously adopted protesting against Representative John Whitehead's lack of interest in the reform movement and requesting the Committee on Elections in the Legislature to give a committee from the league an immediate hearing on the subject.

Before the close of the meeting 100 men joined the league. Meetings will be held every other week between now and the election.

ENTERTAINMENT.

The entertainment given by the B. Y. P. U. of Park Avenue Baptist Church last night was a most creditable affair, and was much enjoyed by a large audience. At the close light refreshments were served.

HOTEL CHANGES.

TWO LEASES FOR RESORT HOTELS WERE SIGNED YESTERDAY.

The Hotel Norfolk has closed its dining-room, and is now being operated as a rooming-house only. There is talk of forming a stock company to erect and operate a first-class $2-a-day house on the site.

Frank P. Morton and Joseph A. Kennedy yesterday signed a lease for the Princess Anne Hotel, at Virginia Beach. Mr. Morton has been the very popular and successful manager of this hotel for several months. Mr. Kennedy is well known as a hotel man, and will take hold at the Princess Anne with Mr. Morton in a few days.

Mr. John C. Woodley, of Portsmouth, and Mr. George C. Kennedy yesterday signed a lease for the Willoughby Beach Hotel, and will open it about May 1st. These gentlemen were in charge of the Ocean View Hotel last season, and under their skillful management that house then enjoyed the best season of its history. They bring to the new hotel the prestige of past success, popularity, energy and good judgment, and these would seem to assure the success of the Willoughby Beach Hotel from its opening day.

This hotel was completely furnished last fall, and was at that time quite fully described in the Virginian-Pilot.

It is understood that a lease of the Ocean View Hotel to Mrs. Doherty for the coming season has been practically closed. Mrs. Doherty is well known in Norfolk, as she was for some time in charge of the Hotel Norfolk.

BRIEF ITEMS OF INTEREST.

Miss Mae Wildman, of Danville, Va., who has been visiting the Misses Summerfield, in Ghent, leaves to-morrow for Baltimore, Md.

Rev. Thomas Dixon is visiting his sister, Mrs. Ernest Thacker, No. 108 York street.

Miss Hattie Congdon, of Chesterfield county, Va., is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. L. Simpson, of Norfolk county.

Travel seems brisker just now than for some time past, and the hotel registers show large arrival lists daily.

"In the Roaring Forties" is the title of the two-page leading illustration in the latest issue of Collier's Weekly. It presents a storm scene off Cape Hatteras and was drawn by H. Reuter Dahl.

AMUSEMENTS.

WARD AND VOKES.

For the past five years Ward and Vokes have annually announced presentation which promised to be better than their preceding one, and each year they have delivered the goods. This year they announce a bran new review of all the fun under the Stars and Stripes with the titular handle of "The Floor Walkers." It may be tersely called a Ward and Vokes entertainment. The means constant laughter, excellent music and singing, good vaudeville interpolations, fine scenery and rich costumes. The company for the new review numbers forty people, comprising principals and a large chorus of pretty girls, who, it is promised, can sing,
